

Our Healing House Team

Leslie Lovejoy, RN, Ph.D. has worked in the wellness, self-help and healthcare field for over 30 years. An educator, wellness coach, and Reiki Master, Leslie helps individuals access their self healing potential and return to a life of balance and harmony. Reiki and Wellness Coaching are offered at the Healing House by Leslie.

Aaron Jameson has completed over 1200 hours of training at the Heartwood Institute and the Boulder College of Massage Therapy. He specializes in Swedish, Deep Tissue and Sports massage. Aaron's massage capabilities are enhanced by his passion for fitness and fifteen years of personal training experience.

Mary Oom, CCHT earned her Clinical Hypnotherapist Certification at the Hypnotherapy Training Institute in Corte Madera. She has been facilitating positive changes in people since 1999 with Hypnotherapy. Mary is certified to offer Journey Work sessions, based on the teachings of Brandon Bay's book, "The Journey". Mary has studied holistic healing practices for thirty years.

Rama Deva studied massage therapy and yoga training at the Mueller College of Holistic Studies in San Diego. Using an East/West Integrated approach to massage therapy, he incorporates elements of many therapies such as Tui Na, Shiatsu, Chi Nei Tsang, and Ayurvedic, creating the best combination to suit an individual's needs.

Gayle Dyne is a licensed psychotherapist, hypnotherapist and has studied all three levels of Jin Shin Do acupressure. Gail uses her knowledge of emotional issues linked to physical tension and Jin Shin Do to facilitate an inner awareness that helps bring about a healing collaboration between practitioner and client. Hypnotherapy sessions with Gayle are also available.

Craig Dvorkin, DC Graduated New York Institute of Swedish Massage in 1975 and Life-West Chiropractic College in 1994. He presently teaches anatomy and physiology and advanced anatomy at the Konocti College of Holistic Studies in Kelseyville. He treats chiropractic patients at the Healing House.

Carol Hoffman has been offering therapeutic massage and herbal wraps to clients for over six years. Her training was completed at the Harbin School of Shiatsu and Massage in Middletown. She combines an eclectic mix of Treggor, Shiatsu, Esalon and Swedish techniques to address specific issues with the most appropriate modality.

Steven West, ND graduated from the Institute for Natural Health Studies in 1991. He also studied Ayurvedic medicine in India. Dr. West's practice combines eastern medicine and the latest western holistic medicine, including practical use of herbs, nutrition, and lifestyle practices.
